Plaintiff,

vs.

The TOLEDO-LUCAS COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

(herein after as TLCPL)

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR IMMEDIATE INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

3:08CV 148

Under penalty of perjury, Plaintiff Mark Anders Tronsen hereby says and affirms the following: That the sole reason for seeking injunctive relief is in accordance with preserving his rights in this matter.

That Plaintiff neither has in the past nor plans any disruption of the library property, staff, or visitors-patrons that is beyond or contrary to anyone's Constitutional rights, privileges, or immunities.

Plaintiff alleges that visiting the library and use of library materials, both on the premises and as a borrower are within his rights and privileges as a resident of Lucas County.

Plaintiff alleges that his rights to public information and right of peaceable assembly will be abrogated – reduced-eliminated if the defendant's exclusion-expulsion of him is allowed to stand.
